

Directions to Penn Forest Natural Burial Park

121 Colorado Street
Verona PA 15147
412-265-4606

From the Turnpike – Exit 48 Allegheny Valley (Should take 10 to 12 minutes)

Take Freeport Road west toward Harmarville

In 1.6 miles turn left at the traffic light on to the Hulton Bridge toward Oakmont

In 0.3 miles (in Oakmont) turn right on Allegheny River Boulevard (2nd traffic light)

In 0.9 miles (all the way through Oakmont) turn left on Plum Street (It's just after the Rite Aid store.)

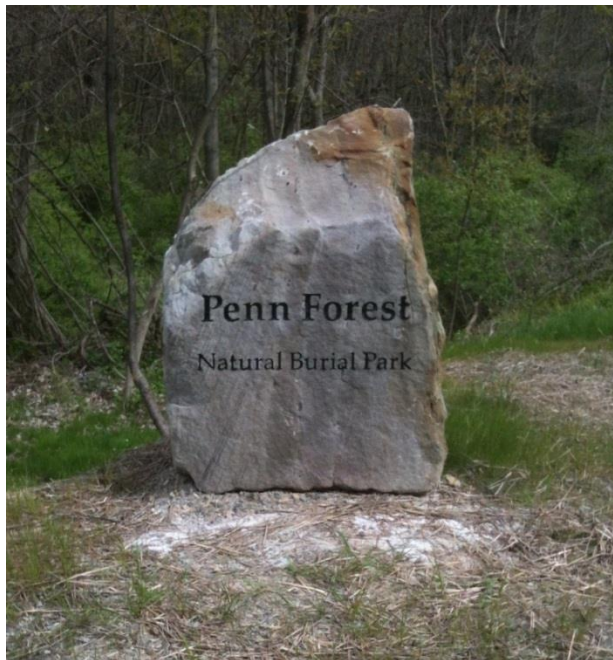

Go 1.1 miles up Plum Street/Hunter Road (It changes its name to Hunter Road when it crosses into Penn Hills, but there are no signs to tell you that.)

At 1.1 miles, turn left on Colorado Street. (It's right after the 80 MPH speed limit sign. Colorado Street is not marked, but it's the first possible left turn off Hunter Road and there are small green signs pointing you to the Penn Hills Community Park.)

Comment: People seem to get lost because they miss the left turn on to Colorado Street, which is why I recommend that you hit your trip odometer when you make the left turn on Plum Street and go only 1.1 miles.

125-feet down Colorado Street you'll see Return Road on your left and Colorado bends slightly to the right there. (Don't turn on Return Road.)

Stay on Colorado Street for another 125-feet and you'll see our gravel drive on the left which goes slightly downhill into the woods. Turn left on the gravel drive at the boulder sign.

Follow the gravel drive about 400-feet through the woods and park in our gravel lot on the left.

The cemetery office is in a tan colored trailer in front of the white house.

From Monroeville (Should take 25 minutes)

Take I-376 west to Rodi Road/Route 791 exit towards Penn Hills

In 2.1 miles turn right on Frankstown Road

In 1.5 miles turn slightly left on Hulton Road (at the Arby's)

In 0.4 miles turn left on Hamil Road

In 0.5 miles turn right to stay on Hamil Road

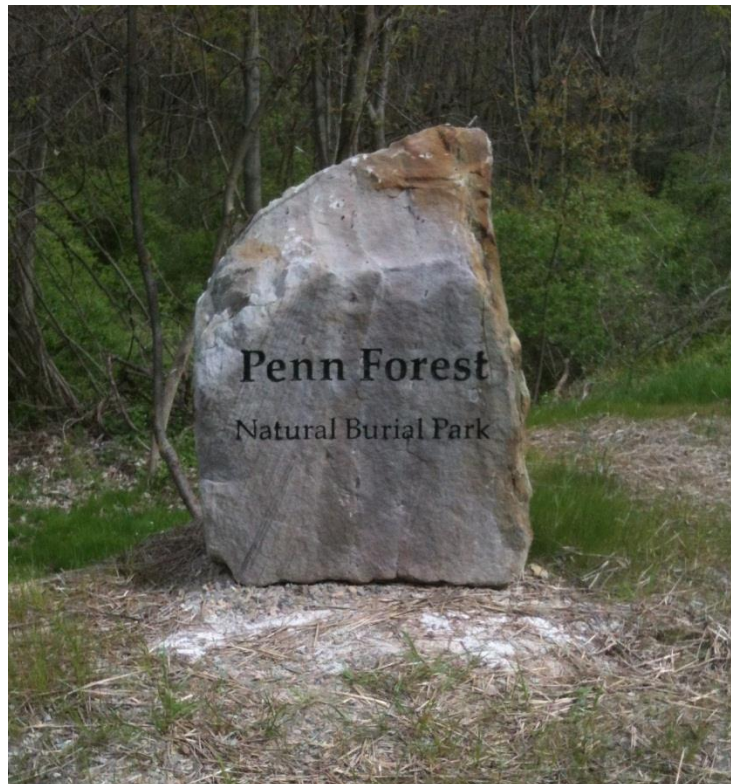

In 0.7 miles turn slightly left on Hunter Road

In 1.2 miles turn right on Colorado Street

(Colorado Street is not marked, but there are small green signs pointing you to the Penn Hills Community Park.)

125-feet down Colorado Street you'll see Return Road on your left and Colorado bends slightly to the right there. (Don't turn on Return Road.)

Stay on Colorado Street for another 125-feet and you'll see our gravel drive on the left which goes slightly downhill into the woods. Turn left on the gravel drive at the boulder sign.

Follow the gravel drive about 400-feet through the woods and park in our gravel lot on the left.

The cemetery office is in a tan trailer in front of the white house.

From Pittsburgh (Should take 30 minutes)

Follow Route 28 north

(There is construction around the 31st and 40th street bridges and it goes to one lane, but it moves pretty well since both those bridges are now closed.)

Exit right to the Highland Park Bridge

Stay in the left lane on the HP Bridge and follow signs to Washington Blvd/PA 8 south

Stay straight on Allegheny River Blvd for about 5 miles

Go all the way through the town of Verona (You are getting close to when you turn when you see the GetGo on the left.)

Turn right on Plum Street (it has its own right turn lane) between the Rite Aid Store and Armstrong's Auto Sales (If you go into Oakmont, you went too far. Turn around.)

Go 1.1 miles up Plum Street/Hunter Road (It changes its name to Hunter Road when it crosses into Penn Hills, but there are no signs to tell you that.)

At 1.1 miles, turn left on Colorado Street. (It's right after the 80 MPH speed limit sign. Colorado Street is not marked, but it's the first possible left turn off Hunter Road and there are small green signs pointing you to the Penn Hills Community Park.)

Comment: People seem to get lost because they miss the left turn on to Colorado Street, which is why I recommend that you hit your trip odometer when you make the right turn on Plum Street and go only 1.1 miles.

125-feet down Colorado Street you'll see Return Road on your left and Colorado bends slightly to the right there. (Don't turn on Return Road.)

Stay on Colorado Street for another 125-feet and you'll see our gravel drive on the left which goes slightly downhill into the woods. Turn left on the gravel drive at the boulder sign.

Follow the gravel drive about 400-feet through the woods and park in our gravel lot on the left.

The cemetery office is in a tan colored trailer in front of the white house.